Guardian Pamphlets

1. TO SECURE JUSTICE IN THE ROSENBERG CASE
by William A. Reuben

The extraordinary and terrifying facts, suppressed by the entire press of the United States, of the first political death sentences in our history.

2. PEACE IS DANGEROUS
by W. E. B. DuBois

The world-famous Negro scholar, victorious over a Government indictment for advocating peace, explains logically and forcefully why the war-makers seek to still the overwhelming demand of the peoples of the world for peace.

3. AN AMERICAN PROPHET SPEAKS

Text of Col. Raymond Robins' interview with Stalin in 1933; with a foreword on Raymond Robins by Cedric Belfrage.

4. MAN BITES DOG
by William Mandel

Instructive, amusing account of how a noted lecturer, writer and foreign affairs expert turned the tables on the McCarran Committee.
